

New video on my You Tube Channel

Description

I posted a new video on my You Tube channel yesterday showing how I use the BERNINA #2A foot to finish the edges of all my quilts before binding or to just keep them intact until I put the final finish on them. . Head on over and look at all of my videos. I would love to hear what you think so leave me a comment and make sure to subscribe while you are there. <https://www.youtube.com/c/SewShellyQuilts>.
